'Dear organizers,
I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks for organizing such a wonderful alumni meeting. It was a pleasure reconnecting with former classmates and faculty members, and I truly appreciate the time, effort, and attention to detail that went into planning the event. The atmosphere was welcoming, the program was engaging, and it was clear that a great deal of thought went into ensuring everyone felt included and valued. Events like this remind us of the strong sense of community and pride we share as Alumni of Szeged's University.'

Alireza Dehdashtian, Class of 2000

'Thank you very much to everyone who helped make this wonderful alumni event happen. It was truly a joy to be part of such a well-organized and meaningful gathering. The way everything was arranged — the programs, the talks, the atmosphere and food— was simply wonderful. Meeting so many old friends and colleagues brought back great memories and created new ones as well. It reminded me how much we have all grown, both personally and professionally, yet still share the same connection that started years ago. This event will remain a special memory for me, full of warmth, friendship, and inspiration. My sincere appreciation to all who contributed, organized, and participated. Wishing every one of you continued success, happiness, and good health until we meet again.'

Shahram Madani, Class of 1993

'Thank you for making this unforgettable journey possible once again. And I truly mean it — you have shaped us and taught us many values, and there's still so much more we continue to learn from you. It was amazing to reconnect with colleagues, faculty, students, and the inspiring university community you've built. I'm proud to see how you continue to chase excellence in education, with state-of-the-art simulation and so much more. I look forward to meeting again soon. Stay safe, everyone — and a big thank you and much respect to the entire Szeged team for being who you are.'

Ahmad Nama, Class of 2009

'Just a quick thank you on behalf of all of the recent graduates! Thank you for making it such a great weekend. It's very inspiring to see doctors from Szeged do so well, all around the world. It was fun to see that our experiences of Szeged were pretty much the same from the joy to the stress! Looking forward to the next one!'

Yograj Deorukhkar, Class of 2023

'I am overwhelmed with emotions. I have a permanent smile on my face and I am not going to tell how much (or not) I have slept after leaving Szeged, because I don't want you to think something is wrong with me. To reconnect with my classmates, to meet again or get to know graduates from other years, in the most welcoming and warm atmosphere was something beyond my imagination. Many thanks and deep gratitude to everybody involved in this.'

Antonios Bitsakis, Class of 2000

'I would like to thank all the university and alumni association staff. It was an amazing weekend.'

Antonino Colombo, Class of 2001

'Good day, everyone. I would like to say a huge thank you to the university, the alumni team, all our colleagues for such a beautifully organised event. It was inspiring to reconnect, reminisce, and see the incredible progress SZOTE continues to make. I am grateful to be part of such a vibrant community. Thank you to everyone for a wonderful event, old memories, and new memories. Everything was seamless, thoughtful, and full of heart. I pray we will all be alive and well to attend the 50th. I am looking forward to revisiting Szeged in a few years. Thank you, and good luck to everyone.'

Yasmin Munir Ibrahim, Class of 2015

'Dear organizing committee, dear teachers, and professors. Thank you so much for this wonderful alumni event that brought back warm memories from the dearest student years of our life. We are very pleased to know the great advances of the University in all fields of education pre and postgraduate that make us proud and inspire us for future sharing of dreams and aspirations. Big love to all of you.'

Marios Stathatos, Class of 1995

'First and foremost, I want to thank everyone that assisted in arranging the reunion. It was such a beautiful and well orchestrated weekend. Both for us alumni, but also for our families. When preparing to return to Szeged, I possessed such a great level of emotional excitement and anticipation, that I was fearful the reality would not measure up. It surpassed all expectations. It was wonderful to meet all the fellow alumni; both my contemporaries and those who graduated before and after my time in Szeged. We all have a connection that only us who made Szeged home can fully appreciate. Our individual successes are in way our collective success. I salute you all.

I was so very thrilled to visit with the current ISUS members, and students. Seeing ISUS evolve from where we started back in 2004/5 to the expansive organization it has become today was very heartening. I hope the alumni and students can use this weekend to strengthen ties; especially to help navigate the post-graduation waters, to ensure further success stories coming from our Alma Mater.

On a more personal note, my wife and two children had such an incredible time. For them, Szeged was an abstraction; a place of stories of people, and experiences from a far off place in time. For them to feel the warmth of connection from Faculty and staff, Alumni and students brought me great comfort and joy.

Lastly, as I left Szeged this time, it was not with a sense of closure, but one of belonging, and strong desire to maintain connection; to return.'
