

Scoring system of applications for the National Higher Education Scholarship at the University of Szeged, Albert Szent-Györgyi Medical School

The National Higher Education Committee of the Albert Szent-Györgyi Medical School in agreement with the Student Union evaluates national higher education scholarship applications as per the following criteria in the 2025/2026 academic year.

A maximum total of 100 points can be given for an application. A maximum of 50 points of the total 100 points can be given for outstanding academic performance: Grade average of the last two semesters * 10 (rounded to 3 decimal places).

The mandatory language examination required for obtaining the diploma is a state-accredited language examination in English beyond the requirements of the English language proficiency test, which can be replaced by the English PROFEX language proficiency test (the English intermediate complex language examination is not worth any points):

Intermediate level complex (C) type language examination:	2 points (A; B 1 point each)
Advanced level complex (C) type language examination:	4 points (A; B 2 points each)
Terminology language examination:	+1 point.
Student of the English terminological translator program:	3 points.
Advanced level complex (C) type language examination:	2 points

Points are given for the higher language examination certificate if there is more than one in the same language. No points are awarded for language examinations taken in the same language as the language of instruction in foreign language programs.

Demonstrator activity: 3 points/semester. (Demonstrator activity is proven by uploading the demonstrator appointment document and department certificate of the semesters the student carried out demonstrator work in.) Other University teaching work can be rewarded with 1 point.

Scientific Student Circle (TDK) membership: 2 points per semester.

TDK regulations II/5.: "A student can only be a member of a single TDK at any given time." TDK membership is proven by providing official semester results or a certificate issued by the department listing each semester's TDK activity.
